Your Future Depends Upon The Friends You Select.

The ambition to have the right kind of friends means health, money, brains and morality. No other outside influence affects a man's life as his friends do, for the company that a man keeps leaves its impress upon his body, his bank account, his mental development and his decency, by setting the standards toward which he struggles. It is only occasionally that men strive for an unseen ideal.

They ordinarily imitate and emulate those whom they see daily. The study of books will rarely weed out "I have saw" when the student has heard it at home for 20 years, while a young man reared in a home of culture may live in a mining camp for years and never lose the correctness of his speech.

In matters of morality, we are all a part of what we touch. When a man is decent among vile surroundings it is usually because he has had contact with decent people. Isolated morality is nearly impossible, and the hermit does not shake off influences. He simply limits himself to those he had already had. It is amazing that we leave the selection of friends to chance.

The most careful study and investigation should regulate the choosing of companions. In choosing a place to live, the character of the neighbors should be the consideration of prime importance; and intimate friends should be selected with the utmost care. Nearly every family is on a footing of good comradeship with two or three other families, and few mistakes in life are more serious than to follow the line of least resistance in this important matter.

If you want high ideals and courage you may be sure that others with the same ideals are looking for you. No social question is of greater importance than that you should find each other; and to leave this important matter to chance through either carelessness or social fear is a crime against the best there is in you.—By Read.

Hodge Reported to Have Purchased Tobacco

Princeton, Ky., June 18.—The Hodge Tobacco company purchased the entire crop of the Farmers' union, operating in Caldwell and Hopkins counties. The price will average six cents a pound. The pool amounted to a quarter of a million pounds.

A Gleaner reporter, seeking information in regard to the above dispatch, which appeared in Tuesday afternoon papers, talked over the telephone with John H. Hodge. Mr. Hodge stated that negotiations had been pending for the purchase of the tobacco, although his brother had not communicated with him, yet he was certain that the deal had been closed. He refused to divulge the price, although it is generally believed to have been around six cents.—Henderson Gleaner.

The Old Maids of Marion.

Marion has several of what the unthinking mob term old maids—that is, Marion has a number of real bachelor girls.

Now some time in the past all of these bachelor girls had visions of a rose covered home, a bower where the everyday troubles ceased and the god of love reigned supreme.

I met one of these girls the other day, she wasn't exactly dejected but she wasn't real jolly. She said, "I believe the world is a very good world but I wish I was in Atlantic City, right now." As she uttered these pleasant words she entered the office where she was employed and was greeted by the remark from the man at the desk: "I wish you would get here a little earlier."

Thank goodness she was equal to the occasion for she replied, "I simply called to tell you that I am leaving for the sea shore at eleven o'clock, and that I won't be back here" and she emphasized the "here."

And she bought her ticket, and there was one bachelor girl less in Marion.

Just a year from that date she handed me a verse, patterned after Kipling, and it read as follows:

I took up the woman's burden—
And reaped the old reward—
A peck on my cheek at breakfast,
My clothes and roof and board;
A smile if he was in good humor—
A frown if he was in a huff—
But there I have got a husband,
And isn't that enough?

Stork Works Overtime in a Missouri City

Kansas City, June 17.—Fifteen of the 250 men drawn on the circuit court jury panel for this week were excused this morning because in every one of the fifteen houses the stork is momentarily expected.

Usually not more than two or three are excused for that reason.

All of the farmers on the panel were released for the cause of the press of farm work at this season.

In Society At Hebron.

Mrs. Lillie D. Daugherty entertained a number of young folks of this community Saturday evening at a birthday party in honor of her niece Miss Mamie Williams, and nephew, Hershel Franklin.

The spacious lawn was beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns, and afforded an inviting playground for the happy guests.

The first part of the evening was spent in singing; some simple games were played, and just before the hour of parting refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. It is needless to say that it was an enjoyable occasion. Among those present were Misses Kittie Wathen, Carrie Ainsworth, Nina Paris, Ina Springs, Millie Bracey, Ena Clark, Stella Phillips, Kate Lynn, Arel Vaughn and Mamie Williams. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daugherty, Messrs. Herbert Phillips, Hollis Franklin, Dennis Clark, Eugene Threlkeld, Claude Springs, Ed Cook, Jr., Vernon Paris, Willie Phillips, Henry Lanham, Trice Turner, Tom Bracey, Jack Alvis and Hershel Franklin.

Carson Franklin, Dead.

Carson Franklin, who has been critically ill with consumption for several months, passed away Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, surrounded by his family and loved ones. He had been a patient sufferer during all his illness and had shown great christian fortitude. His remains were laid to rest at Union Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. T. C. Carter officiating. He is survived by his wife, his aged mother father and several brothers and sisters.

His wife was Miss Lena Price, daughter of the late Loyd Price, the well known merchant of Levias.

He was born Oct. 6th, 1878, and had been a member of the Union Baptist church for many years.

Election Notice.

On the first Saturday in July, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the regular voting place, in each magisterial district in the county, the tobacco growers will meet to vote on the question as to whether or not they will ratify the constitution of the Consolidated Tobacco Growers' Association of Kentucky, as adopted at Madisonville, Ky., June 7th.

Each meeting will be called to order by some tobacco grower who will preside until a permanent chairman is elected.

Republicans to Try Issue.

Monday's Louisville Times has the following to say of the State Senator's race:

The Republicans of the Caldwell, Crittenden, Webster senatorial district have agreed on J. M. Walker, of Crittenden Co., as the nominee for State Senator to oppose J. F. Porter, of Webster, who, it is said, will be nominated at the August primary by the Democrats without opposition. While this senatorial district has heretofore been a trifle close, yet with the Bull Moose defection and the fact that Senator Porter is one of the strongest men in that section of the State, the Democrats apprehend very little trouble in holding what they have.

CROOKED CREEK.

Hamp Wolfe and family, of Mattoon, Ky., were guests of W. H. Thurman and family Saturday night. While there Mr. Wolfe received the sad news that his mother at Clay, Ky., had died. He left Sunday morning on the 8 o'clock train for that little city.

Walter Thurman, of Marion, was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Miss Mina Brantley, of Baker, was the guest of Pearl Thurman Sunday.

Crossland Murphrey, of Fairview, Ill., was the guest of Anthony Murphrey last week.

There will be a Sunday school reunion at Brown's school house the third Sunday in July. They anticipate a big time. There will be dinner on the ground. All invited to come.

Will Thurman and family were the guests of Mrs. Rebecca Hughes, of Mt. Zion, Sunday.

Miss Charlotte Joiner, of Fairview, Ill., spent a week the guest of Anthony Murphrey and family.

A Correction.

Desloge, Mo., June 20, 1913.
Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
I noticed my letter published in your paper, and you have made an error that I hope you will please correct. I stated that it would be a very "honery Kentuckian" who would forget his friends, and kindred, and you have substituted "a very ordinary cuss" I don't approve of the expression—true we have some of those fellows out here, but there are some of them in Kentucky also, and we are very sorry for them.

Please correct this error, as I did not use the expression.

Yours as ever,
S. HERSHEL JENNINGS

TRICE BENNETT ANNOUNCES

For County Attorney.

I take this method of making known to the citizens of Crittenden County my candidacy for County Attorney. Realizing the many responsibilities resting upon the various officials and having acquainted myself fully with the duties imposed upon this particular branch of our local government, I ask you honestly and fairly to honor me with your support.

I deem it fairness to the voters and justice to myself to say that I was graduated from the Law School of Central University of Kentucky in June 1907 going immediately to Marietta, Oklahoma where I engaged in the practice of Law until October 1st, 1911 when circumstances over which I had no control demanded my return to Kentucky since which time I have farmed on the Ohio below Tolu.

I shall conduct a fair, clean and legitimate campaign for the nomination, and election for this office and shall present myself before you strictly upon my own merits, and not upon the demerits of any person or persons who might oppose me. Having a high regard for the citizenship of this County I promise you that I shall not cast reflections of discredit upon friend or foe for the purpose of advancing my cause.

Should I be chosen by you to serve you as your County Attorney it shall be my pleasure to serve you in a firm, courteous and conetant manner, striving for honor to both you and myself. Respectfully asking your support and influence in the Democratic primary election to be held August 2nd, 1913, I am,
Yours very truly,
T. C. Bennett.

Graveyard Cleaning.

On the third Saturday in August, all interested are asked to come and help clean off the Crowell graveyard. Bring your dinner and tools, prepared to spend the day. A few flowers to put upon the grave of those we love would not be amiss.
